The CWA Staff in the Rochester RO wearing black for our 3rd Negotiating session on November 8, 2010. They are also holding black roses to reflect the mood for the day.

Kathy Leisenfelder is the first face of NYSUT everyone sees in the morning. Kathy always has a smile on her face and is usually wearing her CWA 1141 t-shirt.

PRESIDENT'S PEN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I would like to thank each and every one of you for your attendance at the 2010 CWA Day that was held here in Latham, NY. Additionally, I would like to thank the entire committee and all of their hard work that went in to the annual meeting as well as the well received event the night before. So many members have contacted me stating what a wonderful time they had and I am in total agreement as this year we had a record turn out of members attending. The fun for me ended when I tried to shoe horn the "CWA1141" life sized balloons into my car to bring home.

We recently held rally's across New York State at the NYSUT Regional Offices as well as at NYSUT Headquarters here in Latham. Not only did we have a wonderful turn out of members decked out in red, but a great deal of our union brothers and sisters from both the Professional Staff Association and the Legal Staff Association. I want to personally thank everyone on behalf of the officers, members and myself for the unity and strength shown by everyone. As we all know, from the years of support we have shown to other local unions in their time of need, a storm is more easily weathered when you have the support of others behind you. My self and many others throughout our local have been there, on those picket lines, for various unions across the capital district, the state and the country, offering support to others in their time of need. We do this because that is what unionists do, support one another.

Recent negotiations sessions with NYSUT were reported in a bargaining summary that was distributed to the NYSUT CWA members. The summary pretty much speaks for itself. I would ask those members of CWA that I met with over the past year to remember the meetings we held, remember what we discussed. Continue to stand strong, together with one another, as we move towards the completion of negotiations. Your strength is needed because as I've said before, were all in this together.

In Solidarity,
Michael Ostrander
President, CWA Local #1141

You Make The Difference!

Thank you for the
"You Make the Difference" Award.

Your thoughtfulness is appreciated,

The award brought forth emotions of "what", "shock", "not worthy", "so many others should be selected", and then . . . I realized "you just made my whole year" and CWA Day 2010 - The Best.

You all deserve an award for your kindness and for all that you do.

You are the ones who truly "Make the Difference"!
